Half Term is Here Mr Gillan

The first half term seems to have gone by in an absolute whirl and, already, November is on the horizon.

Our Harvest Services, today, were a real treat to experience, from my point of view and I really hope you felt the same. From our youngest pupils singing so beautifully and from the heart, to our Year 6 leading poetic prayers to a respectful and hushed hall, it has been a real privilege to be part of. I also thank every family that donated something to our collection. The Taunton Foodbank has now received 8 large cases of supplied from Thurlbear and that is down to your generosity. Thanks to Mrs Foster-Burnell for coming in on her day off to collect and deliver to the foodbank!

Our clubs for next half term will be ready to book from the Monday afternoon. Please don't forget that Monday is an INSET day. Over the half term, I will put some images together from our Service as well as from this half term learning journey!
